

Guards Patterson and Keddagh by his side. Owing to his spinal trouble Tice is obliged to carry a cane, and he cannot stand erect. He is perfectly calm as he takes his seat in the chair. His vest is unbuttoned. Now the attendants are strapping him down. They do their work quickly. "Guard, take my cane," says Tice, holding out his walking-stick.

"Oh, you will break my nose." These are Tice's last words. He is complaining because the broad leather straps across his face are too tight. Chaplain Yates and Pastor Penney now enter the room through the door at the left. It is just 6.30 to a second when Dr. Daniels raises his right arm as a signal to Electrician Davis.

THE DEATH CURRENT.

The latter presses something, and instantly the body of Tice tugs at the straps. This lasts fifteen seconds. Then the contact is broken for a space of three seconds, when the current is turned on for another fifteen seconds. Again the body bulks at its fastenings and again it settles back when the circuit is broken.

For a third time a contact is made, this time lasting ten seconds. Then there is a rest of five seconds. The fourth and last contact lasts ten seconds. The total time of contact has been fifty seconds, and the total time of execution sixty-three seconds.

At the request of Dr. Daniels, Dr. Baker and Irvine examine the body. They say there is no pulsation whatever. Tice is dead.

The other physicians also examine the body a little later, on invitation of Dr. Daniels. All agree that Tice passed into eternity the first time the current was switched on.

Electrician Davis says that the indicator showed 1,720 volts on the first contact, with a very slight falling off when the three other circuits were made.

A closer examination of the body shows no marks or burns upon it. Dr. Daniels announces that the autopsy would be held at 10 o'clock. Then the witnesses go to the office and sign the official certificate of death. They are as follows:

Dr. Frederic Huntington, Rochester; Dr. T. K. Smith, Auburn; Dr. J. H. McCorr, Rochester; Dr. J. B. R. Jr., Clyde; William F. Lansing, Little Falls; Edward M. Allen, Houlton; J. Myers, John M. Bailey, L. V. Washburn, Auburn; Dr. George E. Fell, Buffalo; Dr. G. Graham, Albany; Harvey D. Burrill, Syracuse; C. W. Welch, Syracuse; Rev. Frank D. Penney, Rev. Horatio Yates, Auburn; Dr. A. G. Root, Albany; Dr. C. M. Daniels, Buffalo; Pierre Turcott, Chas. H. Bailey, Rochester; W. B. Brown, Sing Sing; Dr. C. O. Baker, H. D. Peck, Auburn; Dr. R. T. Irvine, Sing Sing.

MINISTERS TALK OF TICE.

Chaplain Yates and Pastor Penney were with Tice half an hour before the execution took place. He told them, they say, that he did not sleep well last night and that his spine had pained him considerably.

"He was very brave," said Chaplain Yates, "he fulfilled his promise to Mr. Penney and myself, that he would die like a man and a Christian."

"His last words to me were, 'Oh, if I didn't drink that whiskey! Put that in his type,'" said Mr. Penney, with tears in his eyes. "He added, 'But for that very thing, he was as good a man as any witness in this room.'"

A similar view of the executioner, Dr. George E. Fell, of Buffalo, who also witnessed the execution, said that he was not at all disturbed by the execution. There was nothing revolting in the case.

BROKER BOUVIER ROBBED.

Burglars Carry Off a Quantity of Silverware.

Capt. Thomas Kelly and the police of the Twenty-third Precinct, in the Second District, are investigating a robbery which occurred at the residence of Michael C. Bouvier, 14 West Forty-third street.

Mr. Bouvier is a broker, and has an office at 16 Broad street. It was rumored at first that burglars had ransacked the house and carried away $30,000 worth of plunder. But investigation has shown that the robbery was a simple case of silverware.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

WENT MAD IN AN ASYLUM.

Amalia Del Gardo Threatened to Kill Sister Irene.

She is the Wayward Daughter of a Once Wealthy Cuban.

An ambulance was called very early this morning to the New York Foundling Asylum, at Third Avenue and Sixty-eighth street, for a woman who was insane. The surgeon who accompanied the ambulance from the Presbyterian Hospital took the woman to Bellevue Hospital, where she was placed in the insane pavilion. The little difficulty was experienced in getting the woman into the ambulance and out at the hospital.

The police were able to learn very little about the woman, whose name was given as Amalia del Gardo and whose age was stated to be 38 years. At Bellevue Hospital the woman said that she was born in Cuba and that she was a teacher and unmarried. She was placed in the insane pavilion.

Sister Irene, who is at the head of the New York Foundling Asylum, was unwilling to talk much about Miss del Gardo. The woman came of a fine family, she said, and being in reduced circumstances had been given a home in the institution. Of late she had been acting queerly, and as she was evidently becoming insane and might grow violent and dangerous it was deemed advisable to have her removed to the hospital. Sister Irene added that for the sake of the woman herself and her connections she didn't care to say anything further.

It was learned from other sources that the insane woman is the daughter of Cornelius del Gardo, a Cuban, whose family was once wealthy. It is said that she ran away from home when she was a young girl and that her father had never forgiven her for this sin.

Friends of the family in this country took care of her, and after a time she was placed in a convent at Morristown, where she remained several years. She then went to Havana for a few years, and finally returned to this city three or four years ago. She was without means, and friends who had known her from childhood gave her assistance. Since she was a girl she has been troubled with catarrhs of the eyes, and she became almost blind about two years ago. Although she has operated on her eyes several times it did not seem to help her.

She desired to become a school teacher, but in her condition, half blind as she was, no one wanted to employ her. Through the influence of friends, Sister Irene gave her a home in the Foundling Asylum about a year and a half ago and she had been there ever since.

Within a few weeks she has shown signs of becoming insane, and she has notified her friends that it would be best to take her to a hospital. She became violent and talked about killing Sister Irene.

The other sisters in the Foundling Asylum became alarmed, and Sister Irene arranged to send Miss del Gardo to Bellevue Hospital today and decide what was to be done with her. Last night she made some further threats and created a scene, which resulted in Sister Irene calling for an ambulance and having her taken to the hospital.

Miss del Gardo deloped the hospital doctors, that Mrs. Julia Martineau, who lives at 14 West Forty-third street, was her friend. The staff physicians say she is suffering from acute mania. She is a fine-looking woman.

BROKER BOUVIER ROBBED.

Burglars Carry Off a Quantity of Silverware.

Capt. Thomas Kelly and the police of the Twenty-third Precinct, in the Second District, are investigating a robbery which occurred at the residence of Michael C. Bouvier, 14 West Forty-third street.

Mr. Bouvier is a broker, and has an office at 16 Broad street. It was rumored at first that burglars had ransacked the house and carried away $30,000 worth of plunder. But investigation has shown that the robbery was a simple case of silverware.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

The burglars' servant went to St. Patrick's Cathedral to attend early mass at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, leaving no one in the lower part of the house. When he returned at 7 o'clock he found that a quantity of small silverware, including two dozen spoons and a silver bowl had been taken from a drawer of the sideboard in the dining-room.

FOR A WOMAN'S REFORMATORY.

Gov. Flower Signs the Bill to Establish One in New York.

Assemblyman Sulzer's Measure Certain to Win Great Good.

The bill introduced to the Legislature last January by Assemblyman William Sulzer, of this city, and persistently advocated by this Evening World, providing for the establishment of a women's reformatory in the county of New York, has just been signed by Gov. Flower.

As expressed in its title, the act provides for the establishment of a reformatory for women in the county of New York, and the act is now in force. The act is now in force.

It provides for the appointment by the governor of a commission of four persons, two of whom shall be women, to carry the act into effect, and to be known as a Board of Managers, who within six months after their appointment shall purchase land and erect buildings for the proposed reformatory. The superintendent will also be a woman, who shall have charge of the reformatory and instruction in useful industries of women committed to the institution.

After the institution is ready for the reception of women the act provides that she shall be the duty of all justices of the peace, police justices and committing magistrates of the counties of New York and Westchester to sentence any woman not exceeding five years' imprisonment between the ages of fifteen and thirty years who shall have been convicted of petty larceny, larceny, or any misdemeanor, to the reformatory.

The bill also provides in detail for the management of the reformatory, defining the powers and duties of the superintendent and Board of Managers, the procedure for committal, the care, training and education of the inmates, the discharge and the conditions of parole, and the reformatory shall be a part of the State reformatory system.

Under the law it stood until this act was passed, that women who were convicted of petty larceny, larceny, or any misdemeanor, were sent to the reformatory, and the final signing of the bill by the governor gave to New York and Westchester an institution the need of which has long been deeply felt.

Parasols---Special.

500 heavy gros grain and surah silk Parasols in all the leading shades, with imported carved sticks, actual value $4.90, at... $2.67

500 24-inch G. Silk Sun Umbrellas, assorted ivory and silver handles, worth $2.49, at... $1.19

250 24-inch Taffeta Silk, pearl handles, worth $4.75, at... $2.98

Bloomingdale Bros., Third Ave., Cor. 59th St.

MARRIED ONE WOMAN TWICE.

Dr. Buchanan Reunited to His Divorced Wife.

A story comprising some astonishing details comes from Hatties, N. S., to-day, in which Mr. W. R. Buchanan, a physician, who was married to a woman in this city, is the hero.

The story is the news that Dr. Buchanan had remarried at Windsor, N. S., yesterday, the woman who was his first wife and from whom he was divorced not more than fourteen months ago.

This remarriage follows quickly after the death of his first wife, who died in this city about a month ago at the doctor's home, 267 West Eleventh street. Dr. Buchanan has lived at various houses in West Eleventh street during the past six years.

He first lived in the ground floor flat at No. 267 with his wife, who is described as a tall, dark-haired woman, who was a native of the South. The couple lived at No. 267 for two or three years and then moved into a flat further down the street. A daughter was born to them about four years ago.

Something over a year ago Mrs. Buchanan No. 1 disappeared, and the neighborhood was surprised when the doctor leased the brownstone house at No. 267 and installed a new Mrs. Buchanan. She was very unlike the first Mrs. Buchanan, and the neighbors only then learned for the first time that a divorce had separated the pretty blonde from her husband.

Mrs. Buchanan No. 2 lived at least ten years longer than the doctor, and was reported to be a widow with a fortune.

After his second marriage Dr. Buchanan brought his mother and the pretty little tot to the first marriage to share his new home. In the back part of the flat he built a large children's room, and the constant crowding of the doctor's guests was a source of annoyance to the neighbors.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

20 styles Gingham Dresses, elaborately trimmed, sizes 4 to 14 years... $1.00

500 Girls Stripe Royal Twill Blouse Suits, complete for mountain or seaside, 6 to 14 years, worth $2.50, at... $1.00

Will close out 75 short Coats in challies, cashmere, French flannel and imported plaids, were $6.50 to $8.00, at... $3.95

Parasols---Special.

500 heavy gros grain and surah silk Parasols in all the leading shades, with imported carved sticks, actual value $4.90, at... $2.67

500 24-inch G. Silk Sun Umbrellas, assorted ivory and silver handles, worth $2.49, at... $1.19

250 24-inch Taffeta Silk, pearl handles, worth $4.75, at... $2.98

Bloomingdale Bros., Third Ave., Cor. 59th St.

MARRIED ONE WOMAN TWICE.

Dr. Buchanan Reunited to His Divorced Wife.

A story comprising some astonishing details comes from Hatties, N. S., to-day, in which Mr. W. R. Buchanan, a physician, who was married to a woman in this city, is the hero.

The story is the news that Dr. Buchanan had remarried at Windsor, N. S., yesterday, the woman who was his first wife and from whom he was divorced not more than fourteen months ago.

This remarriage follows quickly after the death of his first wife, who died in this city about a month ago at the doctor's home, 267 West Eleventh street. Dr. Buchanan has lived at various houses in West Eleventh street during the past six years.

He first lived in the ground floor flat at No. 267 with his wife, who is described as a tall, dark-haired woman, who was a native of the South. The couple lived at No. 267 for two or three years and then moved into a flat further down the street. A daughter was born to them about four years ago.

Something over a year ago Mrs. Buchanan No. 1 disappeared, and the neighborhood was surprised when the doctor leased the brownstone house at No. 267 and installed a new Mrs. Buchanan. She was very unlike the first Mrs. Buchanan, and the neighbors only then learned for the first time that a divorce had separated the pretty blonde from her husband.

Mrs. Buchanan No. 2 lived at least ten years longer than the doctor, and was reported to be a widow with a fortune.

After his second marriage Dr. Buchanan brought his mother and the pretty little tot to the first marriage to share his new home. In the back part of the flat he built a large children's room, and the constant crowding of the doctor's guests was a source of annoyance to the neighbors.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

The doctor and his wife had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor, and he had engaged passage with the doctor.

LONDON AND LIVERPOOL CLOTHING CO.

OUR CAN'T BE MET BARGAINS.

9.65 Will buy until 11 o'clock Saturday night the best Clothing bargain to be had in New York. 9.65

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWDS respond to OUR great SPECIAL REDUCTION SALES because they're HONEST.

DEPARTMENT FOR Ladies' HOUSE GOWNS

Silk Tea Gowns and Negligees, $7.85, 10.25, 13.50.

Will offer To-Morrow, Thursday, May 19,